

BEAUTY JUDGE . . . Film star Ruta Lee and her Great Dame "Tiny," will be on hand Sept. 30 to help judge the Skipperette contest for the Fishermen's Fiesta, Oct. 13 through 15, in San Pedro. Two runners-up also will be selected in the contest.

Actress to Help Judge Fiesta Beauty Contest

Lovely Ruta Lee will serve on the panel of judges who will choose the Skipperette to reign over the 1967 Fishermen's Fiesta Oct. 13, 14, and 15 in San Pedro.

And the tiny blonde screen, musical comedy, and television star has unusual qualifications to judge a beauty contest — she is a beauty in her own right.

The little star with the big personality has an impressive list of credits for television and film accomplishments. She has been a featured player since her discovery, just out of Hollywood High School, by Frank Sinatra when he was casting for "Sergeants Three," one of his first ventures as a producer.

And what's more, she's an avid fisherman, when her show business chores allow her time to go fishing—even though she doesn't weigh much more than a healthy sardine, at that.

Final judging of the Skipperette contest, which will name a Skipperette and two runners-up who will be Mates at the Fiesta, is set for Sept. 30. The winners face a busy round of public appearances and pre-Fiesta parties before the Fiesta opens for three days of fun beginning Friday, Oct. 13.

EC Nursing Department Adds Five More to Staff

Five new full-time instructors will be added to the nursing department of El Camino College this fall semester, three in the new vocational nursing program and two in the registered nursing program, according to Ms. Margaret Brant, coordinator of nursing.

Mrs. Seolia Beamon, who will teach vocational nursing, received her bachelor's degree in nursing from Dillard University in New Orleans, La. and her master's degree from Indiana University. She has taught at Dillard University for 10 years and in the inservice education department of Harbor General Hospital. Prior to teaching she worked at Charity Hospital in New Orleans for two years.

Mrs. Catherine DeBolt was graduated in nursing from D'Youville College in Buffalo, N.Y., and has done additional work at San Fernando Valley State College and UCLA. She has taught at E. J. Meyer Memorial Hospital in Buffalo, and for the American Red Cross in Los Angeles.

MRS. DeBOLT has worked part-time as a nurse at Little Company of Mary Hospital in Torrance for four years and as a part-time nurse at Torrance Memorial Hospital for one year.

Carson Area Slated for Improvements

Scheduled for start this week in the Carson area by the County Road Department is a $6,000 highway improvement project on 235th Street and on Figueroa Street according to Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

Work on the project will include a section on 235th Street at a point 250 feet east of Moneta Avenue and on Figueroa Street at Sepulveda Boulevard.

The work will consist of constructing an alley intersection, drainage structures, a guard rail, and installing corrugated metal pipe on 235th Street east of Moneta Avenue.

In addition, the $6,000 project will include construction of a catch basin at the southeast corner at Figueroa Street at Sepulveda Boulevard, the Fourth District Supervisor said.

Carson Street Gets New Name

A Carson area street has been named Fenmar Road by the county Board of Supervisors.

According to Supervisor Burton W. Chace, the previously unnamed street was created by construction of the San Diego Freeway. It runs parallel to the freeway, between Carson Street and 220th Street.
